

I use to get 5 to 10 unwanted sales calls interrupting my evening every day. Since New Jersey inacted its Telephone Consumer Protection Act those calls have stopped. It's a law that really works. It should be allowed to continue to do so until something better and even stronger is enacted.